2021 Children's Champion Luncheon

September 30, 2021

Honoring Cherie Buckner-Webb, 2021 Children's Champion

Idaho Voices for Children, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, champions policies that help kids and families thrive. The annual Children's Champion Luncheon raises funds for Idaho Voices for Children while providing meaningful opportunities to connect with thousands of business leaders, elected officials, and influential community members. This year's Children's Champion, Cherie Buckner-Webb, will be honored and celebrated for her years of service as a political and community leader.

Idaho Voices for Children is planning a hybrid event for our 2021 Children's Champion Luncheon. Your sponsorship will be recognized with attendees at the in-person event and attendees participating via a live-stream of the celebration. The safety of our guests is the top priority. The in-person luncheon options will be subject to safety recommendations, which we will monitor closely. As a sponsor, you will help build a bright future for Idaho where families have the strong foundation necessary for children to thrive.
